Introduction

When you think of fairy godmothers, you might picture the gentle, benevolent figure from classic fairy tales, offering a single wish and a spark of hope. In 2004's Shrek 2, the fairy godmother subverts that expectation with a sharp wit, a flamboyant personality, and a voice that instantly sets her apart. The voice of the fairy godmother in Shrek 2is a key ingredient that turns a familiar trope into a memorable, comedic antagonist. This article explores the character's role, the actress behind the voice, and the lasting impact of her performance on the film and its audience.
