Channel Lineup Customization

Subscribers can reorder channels, create custom channel groups, and hide channels they rarely watch. This personalization ensures that your favorite shows are always within easy reach.

Advanced Search and Filters

Searching for a specific show, actor, or genre is effortless. Filters let you narrow down results by date, time, or channel, helping you find exactly what you’re looking for without sifting through unrelated content.

DVR Scheduling

With the integrated DVR feature, you can schedule recordings directly from the guide. Whether you’re planning to catch a late-night talk show or a sports game, the guide lets you set start and end times, choose recording quality, and manage storage.

On-Demand Integration

In addition to live programming, the guide lists on-demand titles available through Cox’s VOD library. You can instantly stream or download these titles to your device for later viewing.

Local News and Weather Alerts

New Orleans residents can keep an eye on local news, weather updates, and emergency alerts. The guide highlights these critical pieces of information, ensuring you’re always in the loop.

Parents can set viewing restrictions based on content ratings, block specific channels, or schedule time limits for children’s programming.

Setting Up Your TV Guide

While the Cox TV guide is preconfigured for most users, customizing it to your preferences can elevate your experience. Follow these steps to tailor the guide to your needs:

1. Create a Channel Group

Organize your favorite channels into groups such as “Sports,” “Movies,” or “Kids.” This grouping appears in the guide’s sidebar, making navigation quicker.

2. Set Recording Preferences

In the DVR settings, choose your default recording quality (Standard, High, or HD) and decide how many recordings you can store before the system prompts you to delete older ones.

3. Enable Parental Controls

Set up a PIN and specify content restrictions. This ensures that children only access age-appropriate programming.

4. Adjust Notification Settings

Enable push notifications or email alerts for upcoming shows, special events, or channel changes. This helps you stay ahead of the schedule.

Scheduling and Recording

One of the most powerful aspects of the Cox TV guide is its recording capabilities. Below are best practices to help you maximize your DVR experience:

Plan Ahead

Check the guide at least a week in advance for shows you're interested in. This allows you to reserve enough storage space and avoid conflicts.

Use the "Record" Button

When you spot a program you want to watch later, simply click the "Record" button. The guide will prompt you to confirm the start and end times.

Manage Storage

Regularly review your recorded programs. Delete or transfer older shows to free up space for new recordings. Cox also offers cloud storage options for premium subscribers.

Record Live Events

For sports or live news events that may be delayed or re-routed, use the "Live + 24" feature to record the program and watch it later at your convenience.

Utilize the "Auto Record" Feature

Set up auto-recording for your favorite shows. The guide will automatically capture new episodes, ensuring you never miss a season.

Managing Your Channels

Keeping your channel lineup organized can save time and reduce frustration. Here's how to manage your channels efficiently:

Channel Reordering

Drag and drop channels in the guide to reorder them. Place frequently watched channels at the top for quick access.

Channel Removal

If you no longer wish to see a particular channel, simply hide it. The channel will remain in your account but will not appear in the guide's main list.

Channel Replacement

When a channel is replaced or rebranded, the guide will automatically update. However, you can manually refresh the guide to ensure the newest channel information is displayed.
